Digest of Opinions of the Supreme Court January Term 1879.

[Reported for the NEWS by Walter Clark Attorney at Law.]

BY SMITH, C. J:

1. Buckmann vs. Commissioners of Beaufort, from Beaufort.

A Superior Court clerk elect who tenders a bond deemed by himself sufficient is entitled to a reasonable time, if the bond is rejected by the Board of Commissioners, to prepare and tender another before the commissioners are justified in declaring a failure. Immediate notice must be given, when a failure to give bond is ascertained and declared, to the judge that he may appoint The Board of Commissioners have power to pass upon the new bond offered at their next regular monthly meeting. The plaintiff is not entitled to a mandamus against to the defendants to induct him into office but to a procedendo that they may pass upon the second bond tendered by him.

BY SMITH, C. J:

2. State vs. Chadbourn from New Hanover.

A firm, which buys timber and converting it into lumber sells it, but which does not buy lumber nor sell timber are not "traders" and are not subject to the license tax imposed on such by the Revenue Act.

BY SMITH, C. J:

3. Dixon vs. Commissioners of Beaufort, from Beaufort.

A sheriff elect who gives the process bond but fails or neglects to give the bond for the collection of taxes has no right to demand to be inducted into office at all. The law requires that three several bonds are to be given by the sheriff and the Board of Commissioners have no authority to dispense with either of them. All three must be given as an indispensable qualification for the office.

BY SMITH, C. J:

4. State vs. James from New Hanover.

Where the party on whose false oath a warrant of arrest in a criminal proceeding was issued accompanied the officer and pointed out the defendant. Held he was as much protected as the officer and is not indictable for assault and battery. The waarant being issued by competent authority no enquiry is admissible into the circumstances under which it was issued. The defendant has a remedy by an action for malicious prosecution.

BY DILLARD, J:

5. Kerchner vs. McRae from New Hanover.

The general rule that parol testimony is inadmissible to add to, vary or contradict a written contract is restricted to cases in which the parties express in writing the entire stipulations agreed on. Where an issue as to a parol agreement is not objected to, parol evidence tending to prove the same can not be incompetent. It is discretionary with a judge whether he shall interrupt counsel if his remarks are improper or to correct them in his charge to the jury. It is not error to charge a jury in a civil case that they must decide according to the preponderance of the evidence. Executors are responsible in their representative capacity on contracts originating in testator's lifetime, but in causes of action wholly accruing after testator's death they are liable individually.

BY DILLARD, J.

6. Johnson vs Rowland, from Beaufort.

The reception of a plea of counterclaim or set off at the trial in the Superior Court of an appeal from a justices court, where no defense was interposed at the trial below, is in the discretion of the Judge and is not an absolute right of the defendant. Where no plea of payment, other than the note issued on, is put in, evidence of any other payments is not competent or admissable.

BY DILLARD, J.

7. Kerchner vs Fairly, from Richmond.

Where in a proceeding to foreclose a mortage it appears that the mortgager who is in receipt of the rents and profits the plaintiff is entitled to have a receiver appointed pending the litigation.

BY DILLARD J.

8. Lew v Lew, from Sampson.

Where a husband sues for a divorce and the jury finds that he separated from his wife (and not she from him) and that she was guilty of adultery after the separation but not before. Held he was not entitled to a decree dissolving the marriage.

What the Cipher Dispatche Prove.

Atlanta Constitution.

They prove beyond the shadow of a doubt (1) that certain members of the Florida returning board offered themselves to the democrats for sale. They prove (2) that these members were upon the market and were ready to sell themselves for a price. The ciphers prove (3) that the knowledge that these knaves could be bought turned the heads of the democratic understrappers who had been sent to the south to look after democratic interests—a very natural result, considering the fact that it can scarcely be a crime to bribe a knave to be honest. The dispatches prove (4) that notwithstanding the clamor of the democratic understrappers, neither McLin nor Cowgill were bought. Why? Not for lack of money—certainly not for lack of opportunity. The question therefore, answers itself. The cipher dispatches prove (5) conclusively, and beyond a doubt, that neither the democratic leaders nor Mr. Tilden ever entertained the idea of buying these Florida knaves. This is the case as it stands. By all means let the cipher dispatches go upon the record.

The Largest Locomotive.

The largest locomotive made in this country was sent out from Philadelphia the other day to take its place on a long and heavy grade in the Rocky Mountains upon the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad. It has eight driving wheels, only 42 inches in diameter; the cylinders measure 20 by 26 inches, and the boiler is 42 inches in diameter. It has 213 tubes, each over 11 feet long, and the firebox is 10 feet long. The weight of the engine is 118,000 pounds, and the great weight and size of the boiler and the small driving wheels form a tremendous power. The eight driving wheels are merely to distribute the weight, for if the weight rested on but four, no track ever laid could withstand the pressure. The weight is so great that the western railroads over which it must pass, will not permit it to go over bridges so it will have to be taken to pieces and carried over in sections.

S B 43, in regard to the seduction of women. Provides that any person seducing a woman, under the promise of marriage, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than $50, and imprisoned in the Penitentiary not less than 3 years. Several amendments were offered but voted down.

Mr Leach asked to be excused from voting on the final reading of the bill, on the ground that he was in favor of fine and imprisonment in jail at the discretion of the Judge, but opposed to confinement in the Penitentiary—that this would encourage perjury among the less scrupulous of both races, that he had sought to have stricken out the infamous part of the punishment and failed.

The bill then passed its final reading by a vote of 29 to 8, ordered to be engrossed and sent to the House of Representatives.

On motion of Mr. Bynum Senate adjourned until 10 o'clock to morrow.

REVISAL OF THE LAWS.

S B. 14, H. B. 168, in regard to revising the laws of the State, which was made the special order for noon to-day, was taken up. It provides for the appointment of three commissioners by the Governor, to whom shall be entrusted the work of collection and revision of all the statute laws of the State, including those passed by this General Assembly; to reduce into the compass of one act all those laws which can properly be consolidated, following the arrangement and plan of the revised code of 1854; to use all means to make plain the laws; and to designate such changes and modifications as are deemed advisable. The work to be ready for submission to the next General Assembly, and 300 copies be printed for the use of that body. The Commissioners are to have a clerk at a salary of $300, but in the bill there is no provision for compensation for the commissioners.

To this bill an amendment was offered by Mr. Vaughan, to take from the Governor the appointive power by saying that W. B. Rodman, George N. Folk and John S. Henderson be appointed commissioners to do the work of revision. He spoke to the amendment and said that he offered it after conference with the Governor and Lt. Governor, who both desired the General Assembly to make the choice. He then spoke of the gentlemen whose names were given, saying that they were put forward in no personal spirit, but simply for their fitness for the position. Judge Rodman, the only living member of the former commission, is perhaps one of the best men in the State for the place, while Mr. Folk is without a superior in research and patient and careful study of the law. Mr. Henderson, though a young man, is eminently fitted, and it was desired to have a younger member of the commission, that he might advise in future revisions.

Mr. Lewis favored the codification of the laws, as they were now so mixed that lawyers did not understand them. He desired the commission to be appointed by the Governor, for if the House attempts to elect it will consume days of precious time, and perhaps to no purpose, as there would be numberless nominations. He wished the bill to pass as it came from the the Senate.

Mr. Lindsay offered an amendment that there be 2 commissioners, with a clerk at $500

Mr Powers offered one to give the Supreme court the power to appoint the commissioners.

Mr. Jones added his endorsment to the three eminent gentlemen named by Mr. Vaughan, saying that all were peculiarly fitted for the position, and desired the passage of the amendment offered by that gentleman.

Mr. Covington offered an amendment to Mr. Vaughan's amendment, by striking out all names, thus simply saying the General Assembly shall choose the commissioners.

Mr. Carter, of Buncombe desired the appointive power to rest in the Governor. There will be 150 names brought forward, nearly every man having a choice. The Governor has ample time to deliberate and weigh the merits of the lawyers of the State, and so select the best men, while this session might end before the Legislature chose. He also spoke of the question of expense, saying that the sale of the work would no doubt balance the amount paid out.

Mr. Covington spoke on the bill, saying the people favored it, not the lawyers, perhaps, but the farmers, of whom there were in the House a large majority, and who had passed it in the Senate. The code was for their benefit. The payment of the commission is left to a future Legislature, who will examine the work and see if in be worthy. The Governor should not have the burden of appointing put upon him. If there is any blame in a choice it would fall on him. The way to choose is to appoint a joint committee of 13 and let them weigh the merits of the nominees, or, else, we can make choice in caucus.

Mr. Bost favored the adoption of Mr. Vaughan's amendment. Mr. Foard spoke of the name and claims of Mr. Marshall Clement, of Davie, and, continuing said the Governor was peculiarly filled to make the selection, as he was a lawyer and knows every lawyer in the State, his merits etc. Mr. Cooke was in favor of concurrence in the resolution as it came from the Senate. The people of the State trustfully entrust the selection to the Governor. Mr. Turner did not see the necessity of the bill, or of having more than one commissioner in the revision.

The previous question was then called, and Mr. Covington's amendment to Mr. Vaughan's amendment, which struck out names, was lost.

Mr. Vaughan's amendment, naming the members of the commission, then failed to pass by a vote of 44 ayes to 49 nays.

The amendment by Mr. Lindsay to say two commissioners and clerk at $500, then failed to pass.

Mr. Powers' amendment, to let the Supreme Court choose, were lost.

The vote then recurring upon the original bill, it passed its second reading.

On a motion to suspend the rules to put it upon its third reading, the ayes and nays were called, when the rules were not suspended, not two-thirds of the House voting in favor of suspension. The vote stood 53 to 45.

H. B. 15, in regard to a term of the Superior court in Union county, changing its time, passed its readings.

GOVERNOR VANCE'S RESIGNATION.

A message was received from his Excellency the Governor, transmitting the following:

To the Honorable, the General Assembly of North Carolina:

Having received official information of my election as a Senator in the Congress of the United States from the State of North Carolina, for the term commencing on the 4th of March, next, I hereby tender my resignation as Governor of this State, to take effect on Wednesday, the 5th day of February, 1879: In thus surrendering into your hands the great trust which was placed in mine by the people of North Carolina in 1876, in order to accept another to which their Representatives have thought it proper to transfer me, I deem it not unbecoming to say that I find it impossible adequately to express the thanks of which my heart is so full, for this last and greatest expression of the confidence of my countrymen. To have inspired such a feeling fills me with grateful pride, and to deserve it shall constitute the sole aim of the remaining years of my existence, and to which all that I have and am shall be sacredly dedicated.

With earnest wishes for the health and happiness of each individual member of your honorable bodies, and with fervent prayers for the prosperity and honor of our native land, I am, Gentlemen,

Drunkenness.

On last Sunday afternoon the Rev. Dr. Atkinson, of the Presbyterian Church, preached at the Chapel of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, from the proverb, "Wine is a mocker and strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise."

The venerable gentleman seemed to address himself especially to enforcing the necessity of a change in the social custom, which regards the offer of strong drink as good evidence of hospitality. We think if the Devil is ever to be successfully routed in this his strongest fortress, that the point of assault should be the one pointed out above.

But this will require a reforming zeal, which it is hardly fair to expect from a generation trained to believe that generosity and quick wit largely counterbalance the faults of the drunkard and that it is not inconsistent with true gentility to occasionally "take too much tea." Of course the decree of eternal exemption from the joys of the future Christian kingdom is not lessened in its force by any opinion men may have of its justice. Nothing can be more foolish than the argument of probabilities as to what will or will not be done with us hereafter—based as it invariably is on human analogies.

"Poor fellow! pity he drinks!" is an expression of the very cheapest of cheap human sympathy. One may reasonably feel sure that it is not translatable in the other world.

The frequency with which this and kindred expressions occur, is evidence that we do not regard drunkenness in the same light in which Revelation looks at it.

As inducing us to adopt the Bible view, Mr. Atkinson would disassociate the habit from all the charms with which social courtesy invests it, he would have the acknowledged critics of poetry denounce the muse of Tom Moore, Burns, Byron and Poe as faithless to its heavenly ordered mission when stooping to hymn the praises of what is "earthly, sensual, devilish." Hand in hand with this movement he would have the lawsmakers force by taxation the ungodly gains into the public treasury. We have seldom heard a more sensible, direct and incisive statement of a case than Dr. Atkinson gave to his audience, which though small was attentive. There were present several members of the Legislature.

Magistrate's Criminal Jurisdiction.

The Senate bill to increase the criminal jurisdiction of magistrates may prove to be a measure of doubtful value. With some good features it contains the seeds of dangerous thistles, which are likely to yield a future harvest of annoyance to its authors. We published the bill in our issue of the 23d inst.

It gives justices exclusive original jurisdiction of all offences the punishment of which does not exceed in money $50 or in the deprivation of the citizens liberty, thirty days. It properly defines the meaning of one months imprisonment to be thirty days.

All proceedings in bastardy, assaults, assaults and battery and affrays where no deadly weapon is used will henceforth belong to the Squires, if this bill becomes a law.

One good feature, perhaps the best one of this proposed statute, is the authority granted to imprison the complainant, who fails to pay the costs in cases, where the defendant is acquitted. This will prevent the bringing into court of the grudges of a neighborhood and actions based on spite and petty malice. Our most serious objection however to this measure is its undoubted tendency to increase the crime of bastardy by removing in a large degree the publicity and attendant shame, which a trial in the Superior Courts of the State now necessarily carries with it.

To preserve the moral purity of a people is one of the first and highest duties of the law-maker. That this bill will give a freer license to open concubinage we believe; but we are equally sure that nothing could be farther from the intentions of its author, the excellent christian Senator from Rowan, than to effect such a result.

Of the practical abolition of the office of State's Solicitor which is effected under it and of the immunities likely to be enjoyed by roughs and rowdies, when the rod of punishment is held by the too easily bull-dozed Squire, we may speak again and at more length.

Meanwhile the Legislature might serve the State by exercising a masterly inactivity when the bill to extend the criminal jurisdiction of magistrates comes up for another reading.

Let us not be understood as opposing any increase in their authority. Our objection is confined to the broad grant given in this particular bill of exclusive criminal jurisdiction.

P. S.—Since the above was put in type the Senate proceedings show that on motion of Mr. Caldwell of Guilford this bill was indefinitely postponed.

CONGRESSMAN Stenger, of Pa., is also a candidate for Secretary of the Senate The Washington Capital gives currency to the startling report that Stenger has secured one vote for that position. This, it seems has filled all the office-holders about the House with amazement, and every one, from the highest holder of the door string down to the custodian of the cloak-room and purveyors of soap for the barber shop, broke out for Stenger in the wildest manner. They are all Stenger men. They are vociferously for the candidate that is sure of the vote; and it is resolved, when the Senate becomes Democratic, for all the agents of the House to go over in a body to the Senate. And this not because the duties are lighter or the pay better, but the employment is so much more dignified, and the tenure of office is more secure. It is sweet to die for one's country when one can die in office, and doubly sweet when one can be buried at the expense of one's country.

MR. HENRY IRVING, the eminent English actor, who has become the manager of the Lyceum Theater in London, and whose Hamlet is just now exciting so much comment abroad, has created something like a revolution by providing the English people with a bright, airy, comfortable play-house, after the American pattern. To show how far behind the New York manager the Englisaman is in everything pertaining to comfort, it is only necessary to say that the London papers are heaping their thanks upon Mr. Irving for having abolished the man who charges sixpence for a playbill.

IT IS said that the Potter committee room turned blue when Butler walked in Saturday morning with a fourteen page telegram from New Orleans, filled with names of persons suggested as witnesses to prove that the downfall of the late Packard legislaturewas brought about by means quite as repugnant to honesty as anything intimated in the cipher dispatches. It is quite possible that General Butler will succeed in making himself disagreeable to Associate Justice Harlan of the Supreme Court before this new phase of the case is disposed of.

As indicative of the laxity, which characterizes the enforcement of an unpopular statute in North Carolina, attention is called to the fact that only three counties paid the tax of fifty cents per ton on fertilizers bought outside of the State. The Commissioner of Agriculture recommends that this money be refunded to the counties which paid it and that the law imposing the tax be repealed.

GEORGIA, by her enterprise and thrift, distinguished as the Empire State in the South, pays $125.00 per capita for the support of her insane. Slow, easy-going North Carolina, out of debt, fortunately, or at least, owing the insignificant sum of only thirty millions, on which she pays no interest, pays $223.00 per capita per year.

AN OBSCURE clause of our DECLARATION OF RIGHTS, reads: "The people "of this State ought not to be taxed or "made subject to the payment of any "impost or duty, without the consent "of themselves, or their representatives in General Assembly, freely "given."

THE FIRST duty of a legislator is to study closely the constitution. How does Sec. 9, Art. XI strike the intelligent representative: "It shall be the "duty of the Legislature, as soon as "practicable, to devise means for the "education of idiots." Educating idiots! As soon as practicable! The constitution might be pruned to advantage.

LOUISIANA is the next southern state to secure a constitution of its own. The convention bill was signed by Governor Nicholls on Friday last, and has been officially promulgated. The delegates, one hundred and thirty-four in number, are to be elected March 18, and the convention is to meet at New Orleans April 21.

HAYES has dug up another Old Line Whig and appointed him to office in Alabama. This is the wrong time for a President of the United States to set an example of body-snatching.

FARMERS don't wear home-spun clothes as a matter of preference. It is because they are paying one hundred per cent more for the support of their charitable instutions than is necessary.

THE RETRENCHMENT committee is hard at work. The members of the committee have been excused from other legislative duties for three days. Economy is growing.

MR. STAMPS, of this city, was yesterday nominated by Gov. Vance and confirmed by the Senate a director of the Penitentiary Board. The important trust will be discharged with fidelity to the State and credit to the trustee.

YOUNG, prosperous and economical West Virginia pays $115.00 per capita per year for the support of her insane. Debt-burdened, impoverished North Carolina pays $238.00 per capita per year.

BRAGG'S "doughface" is now attributed to miserable ventilation and mean whisky.

Our Penal Institutions.

Correspondence of Wilmington Star.

"These institutions were established more particularly for the care and support of them who are unable to care for and support themselves. It is a departure from the high name and purposes of charity to take and support, free of charge, those who are able to pay their way. Patients of means should of course be admitted and treated, but the law should be changed so as to compel such patients to pay, while those unable to pay should be taken in and cared for free of charge as now. There is many a poor unfortunate lunatic now unable to gain admission into the Asylum, because it is overcrowded by those able to pay, but who in this respect are gratuitously supported equally with those of unable to pay. And the same is true in regard to the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind. It is astonishing, remarkable, extraordinary, that those provisions have not long ago been expunged from the statute books by past legislation. They should never have been in existence. It, therefore, you wish, and our present Legislature desires, to make an equal and just application of this now very popular and much needed principle of retrenchment and reform, and to save much money to the State, exterminate these fundamental regulations as they pertain to these institutions, and abolish them."

[The Star's able correspondent is right. But the remedy lies in amending the Constitution. Art. XI, Sec. 10. The General Assembly shall provide that all the deaf mutes, the blind, and the insane of the State, shall be cared for at the charge of the State.]

The Clean Against the Unclean.

Extract from Col. Polk's Report.

By Sec. 7. of the Act your Board is specially charged with such investigations as may best promote this industry, and with the collection and publication of such statistics as may encourage it, "and more particularly for the suppression of the ravages of dogs." I have been untiring in my efforts to ascertain the sentiment of the people in regard to this question. I have discussed it in all its phases, freely and fearlessly, to the best of my ability, before all classes of our people, from one extreme of the State to the other, whenever and wherever I have had the honor to address them; and I have on file in this office hundreds of letters from intelligent, enterprising men in all parts of the State, and all agree that the dog nuisance must in some manner be abated. And, to give an idea of its enormity, permit me to quote official figures from the returns before referred to, inacurate and incomplete as they confessedly are. In the seventy-eight counties reported there is an aggregate of 111,039 dogs—about one dog for every three sheep. In several of the counties the number of dogs actually exceeds that of sheep The number of sheep in these counties for the year past was 28,081—about 8,000 more than were destroyed by disease.

Matt Carpenter.

Detroit Free Press.

Matt Carpenter who was beaten by Republican bolters in 1875, goes back to the Senate from Wisconsin, replacing the venerable Howe, who has wearied the Senate for eighteen years. It will relieve that body greatly to be no longer inflicted with Howe's insufferable dullness. Carpenter, at least, will be a sprightly and interesting member of the Senate. He is a man of great ability, and when in the Senate was much less of partisan than the insignificant personage, supposed to have a judicial temperament, who was chosen his successor. After his defeat in 1875, Carpenter continued in good standing with his party untill 1877, when he had the temerity to argue on the Democratic side before the electoral commission. Then he was solemnly read out of the party by nearly all the organs. These same organs will now join in applauding his election, and Carpenter will take his seat in the Senate when that other illustrious reformer and pure statesman, Logan, does. It will be something like old times to see them back again. In the case of each of them Republicanism, when left to itself, reverted to an unsavory type.

A WICKED Northern exchange of the Independent class, thus expresses its misplaced confidence in Mr. Tilden:

Perhaps, after all, it was a providential intervention which excluded S. J. Tilden from the Executive chair at Washington. Heretofore he has been universally regarded as a shrewd and not ovescrupulous lawyer and politician, but now he begins to loom up as the sole individual on this continent whose infantile innocence fits him to be the President of a national Sunday school league; hence, on the whole, there may be reason to rejoice rather than lament that so guileless a blossom has escaped the rank, unwholesome atmosphere of the White House.

Governors' Salaries.

Wilmington Star.

We have put ourselves to the trouble to ascertain the salaries of the Governors of some of the States. Alabama pays $3,000, Connecticut $2,000, Iowa $3,000, Kansas $3,000, Maine $2,500 Michigan $1,000, Minnesota $2,000, Nebraska $2,5000, New Hampshire $1,000, Oregon $1,500, South Carolina $3,500, Vermont $1,000, West Virginia $2,700, Arkansas $3,000, Georgia, most prosperous of Southern States, pays $4,000. Illinois, with three times the wealth and population of North Carolina, pays but $6,00. Missouri, double as large and as rich, pays $5,000. Ohio, with its three and a quarter million people, pays but $4,000.

[The Georgia Legislature last year reduced the Governors salary to $3000, and the salary of Superior Court Judges to $2000.]

The Decision Against Polygamy.

From the Atlanta Constitution 26th.

The further we go, in this matter, the more fully we see what a maze of difficulties our remissness in the past has got us into. We have permitted an institution to grow up in the heart of the country that is an offense to all civilized society; we freely admit the wickedness of polygamy; we heartily desire its extinguishment; but in casting about for a method by which to reach the desired end, we are startled by proposed innovations upon established rights, dangerous appeals to force, or a sentimentalism that would doubtless be as ineffectual as it is softhearted. The decision in the Reynolds case is, in short, but the beginning of a long and thorny road that our own sins in the past compel us to travel. It will be found in the end that we are in a position to deal only with future infractions of the law, and that we must leave to time the curing of what we have, with full knowledge and consequently of participating guilt, permitted to take place.

Repudiation Ahead.

Washington Capital.

It is to be hoped that the President will have nerve enough to veto the bill called the arrear of pensions, that passed Congress almost unanimously. It takes, at the lowest calculation, fifty millions from the Treasury, and adds so much to the mountain load of debt from which the people suffer, that it will end in a repudiation of all. The way in which we are bled, under the name of pensions, is something simply infamous, and goes to show the utter hypocracy and dishonesty of law-makers who are professed patriots and practical demagogues.

Pay the Judges.

Wilmington Star.

Pay the Judiciary well. Their labors are very heavy, and they are compelled to be absent from their familes much of the year. The expense of the Circuit Judges are necessarily very considerable. We believe their pay is inadequate. The men who have to preside in our courts should be men of learning, of ability and of and of the strictest integrity and honor. To obtain the best talent you must give fair compensation.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

"The Nigger in the Wood Pile."

Correspondence of the News

Mr. Redwines's bill yesterday to reduce the servants (and their hire) allowed officials in the State Capitol, comes in good time. These servants of our official servants cost the taxpayers about $3 300 last year. In 1860 the same service cost $180.

We read in history that the King of Persia allowed Themistocles the revenues of a certain city for his provisions, that of another city to pay for his clothing and so on. The taxes of what county should be set apart to pay for servants to wait upon our officials? There are nearly half the counties neither one of which pays enough to the State for this purpose (exclusive of the public school tax.) Neither do such counties as Burke, or Harnett, or Carteret, or Franklin pay quite enough to run the servants. It will take a pretty good county.

Change the Law.

Correspondence of the News.

THOMASVILLE, N. C.

Farmers throughout the State are becoming more interested with reference to the rearing of stock particularly sheep, to the taking care of the insectivorous birds. They are, consequently, put to much trouble in "posting their land" to prevent their farms being overrun by hunters and sheep-killing dogs. Why not change the law making it a penal offense to hunt on any man's land without the permission of the owner. This would put the burden or trouble upon the hunting party and not upon the farmer. In those sections of the State, or upon those farms, where the proprietors are willing to have their lands hunted upon, their permission could easily be obtained, and the law would certainly cut off many marauding parties that now, despite the farmers overrun all the limits of right and justice to propriety. In this higher state of civilization let the law be made to favor the higher interests of society.

The Reform Legislature.

Correspondence of the NEWS.

GREENSBORO, N. C

The Legislature has now been long enough in session for experts to judge of its quality and intentions. These may be frustrated or blunted by a long session, or by the incessant efforts of those who would maintain the existing condition of affairs at the capitol and in the charitable and penal institutions. It is the honest purpose of the Legislature, I believe, to retrench, but it should be done quickly, thoroughly and judiciously.

RENO.

Retrenchment.

Correspondence of the News.

In the general cry for retrenchment which now comes up from every direction there is danger of going to the other extreme and finding our policy bordering on niggardness, if there be such a word. It is no pleasant task to differ and contend with our friends, with whom we would like always to be in harmony, but in times like the present when the whole democratic Car is, plunging headlong down towards "Retrenchment" station there must be brakemen or we shall run past the point of destination. As one of Senator Graham's constituents and supporters, I regard, that his bill to regulate salaries and fees, in my judgment is already passed that point. No doubt the Senator wants to get as far back to the good old times when the Governor's salary was three thousand dollars, which we fear his bill will not accomplish, if it becomes a law. The labors of the Governor at that time must have been much less than now. The expense of living in Raleigh, even at the present reduced prices, is no doubt more than then and the Constitution declares he "shall reside at the seat of government." But are we to pay our Governor a bare support, which some say the present salary does not provide? Have we no pride in this matter which asks us to pay to the Chief Executive of a great sovereign State a salary he may not be ashamed to acknowledge among his peers? Or must we yield to the downpulling and traveling practice of time serving demagogues till we behold a Governor engaged in some trade or traffic for the support of himself and family? The other salaries mentioned may all admit of reduction except the Judges. I have heard two or three of the best of our Superior Court Judges threaten resignation because the present salary ($2500) is not sufficient to pay their expenses of traveling over their circuit, and support their families. Of course there are plenty of men who will be willing to be called "Judge" if the salary was only half the amount proposed, but what sort of Judges would they make? There are many lawyers in the State who will not accept the position with the present salary, and if that be reduced yet lower, there is little doubt the standard of North Carolina Judges, not now to a high, will be proportiontbly lowered. But why make difference between the Supreme and Superior court Judges? Their powers are the same while honors are more nearly equal than the labor, expense and exposure. "The laborer is worthy of his hire." We should have our lawyers to fill these places, but we cannot expect them to give up a practice worth vastly more than the salary proposed. The whole amount proposed to be taken from the Governor and nine Judges ($5500) would make but little difference in the governments expenditure, and no apparent difference in the taxes of the people. This small amount has not caused, or in any way contributed to the financial troubles we are now battling against, nor will its being kept from the already poorly paid officers, afforded us any adequate relief. Cannot the assembled wisdom of the State, search out and apply some remedy for these depressing times, rather than drag all down to the level of starvation. I don't believe the tax-payers of the State demand this reduction of the already low salary of our Governor and Judges, however much they desire retrenchment in other respects. They demand the strictest economy in all expenditures of the public money but they do not ask such a reduction of their salaries. But sec. 11, of the Senators bill is the worst part of it. I take it that County commissioners are included in "all other county offices whatsoever" and will have the pleasure of fixing their own "mileage, fees and compensation." Justices of the Peace are county offices. They elect the commissioners and might possibly have a word to say about their own "fees and compensation". But the pay of these officers comes mostly frow the law breakers of the land and not from the public Treasury. For this reason they should be fixed at a uniform rate and sufficiently high as to make fair compensation for the services to be performed. The fees of Justices of the Peace are entirely too low to induce men of the requisite capacity to accept the office in many counties, and often the place remains vacant. The senators plan would show fee bills in the different counties differing as widely as the different Boards of commissioners in their respective estimates on the value of the services to be reduced, and presenting an inconvenience most intolerable. These thoughts have been hastily penned, with no purpose to criticise the good work of real reform in our public expenditures, or our Senator's move in that direction. They all presented calmly and kindly for the more mature consideration of those who have the matter under consideration with a hope that they may be as kindly received and reflected upon.

The democratic party promised retrenchment and reform and if it has not already fulfilled the promise, let it be done, but done in the right way.

If there remains any rottenness or extravagance inany of the uncleansed corners recently filled with radicalism clean it out, but stop the continual cry of retrenchment in the places already purified, else the rads will say we accuse ourselves, which we do not.

A Plea for Wilmington from the West.

Correspondence of the News.

MT. AIRY, N. C., Jan. 23, 1879.

Reasoning from analogy and the success of other States it would seem that the Rail Roads ought to converge to a common centre, and that centre should be the best Seaport. Look at the rail road maps: South Carolina has her Charleston; Louisiana her New Orleans; Maryland her Baltimore; Pennsylvania her Philadelphia; New York her New York; Massachusetts her Boston; Alabama her Mobile; Georgia her Savannah; Virginia her Norfolk and Richmond and so on through many more.

North Carolina has her Wilmington, but does her railroads radiate to the mountains from the main commercial centre? No. If we had a more important Seaport where the most of the citizens could resort to as is usual with a real Metropolis would not our people be better acquainted? Would not there be more unanimity and concert of action more homogeniry—more State pride and prosperity? How many North Carolinians go to Wilmington to buy goods?—aye even groceries and tropical fruits? Every true North Carolinian, if he will reflect a little, will see that these things ought not to be so. Charleston rejoiced not many months ago at the prospect of tapping by rail our western transmontane section at Asheville. Why should not Wilmington rejoice at the prospect of tapping the nearest mountain section to her? Would it not look fair since the long way of the State has one road from the mountains to the sea that the short wayshould have one too? I was glad our patriotic Governor recommended State aid to the Fayetteville and Greensboro Rail Road. This through the Cape Fear, would for the present be a step towards recognizing more fully than we have heretofore done the fact that we have a Commercial Metropolis. But to make this a paying road to the State and thus lower the taxes and more fully carry out the first named object it should by all means be extended further north, near Danbury, Stokes county. Because it would utilize and develop the great mining interest of that highly favored section—highly favored by Nature, but hitherto much neglected by man.

Here are to be found inexhaustible mines of iron, coal and lime which if developed by means of a Rail Road would in return make it yield rich dividends to the State in the way of freight and travel; for be it known that these mountain counties are exceedingly romantic and attractive not only as affording delightful summer and winter homes, but especially attractive to the summer tourist, who needs the cool invigorating mountain air and health giving waters, which are no doubt designed by the great Designer for the invalid of the low country. Let them have a short and cheap Narrow Guage to get to these places. But this Road should not only penetrate Stokes county but to ensure its success as a dividend paying road beyond a possibility of doubt it should be extended to the village of Mount Airy near the Blue Ridge. Not simply because this town has a very extensive back country never in the nature of things to be much if atall penetrated by any similar roads, which might direct trade to the detriment of the scheme under consideration, but also because this grand back country must necessarily come to this Rail Road at Mt. Airy. And why so? The dirt roads, many in numbers running through the mountain gaps all converge to this point, and they are remarkably good roads considering they are not graded. The citizens in the adjacent counties of Virginia will come South, because it is so difficult to go North to the Virginia and Tennessee Road. Horses, cattle, hogs, bacon, lard, hay, rye, oats, apples, buckwheat, iron ore, coal, lime, corn, wheat, tobacco, &c., would swell the business of this Road. Would the Virginia and Tennessee Rail Road lose something? Of course it would. But Virginia is pulling for the trade of the Dan and Coalfields, and why not pay back in equally good coin.

Butler and St. Martin Sparring.

Correspondence N. Y. Star.

Witness was asked if he had gone to Mr. Sherman or any one to take any steps to prevent the great wrong done to Mr. Stenger before the affidavit was published in the newspapers. He said no.

Gen. Butler—Then you failed to correct this lie?

Witness—It was a mistake and not a lie, and I don't intend to take your insults.

Gen. Butler—You will answer my questions.

Witness—But I don't propose to be called a liar again. I am on the stand, and that's where you have the advantage of me. You won't come outside and say I lie.

Gen. Butler—Well, call it a mistake or lie, as you choose. I call it a lie. Now, why did you wait so long before the affidavit was corrected?

Witness (hotly)—I don't propose to answer your questions any longer; you can lock me up for contempt if you want to, but I'll be d—— if I answer any more.

Gen. Butler—You won't. Well, we'll see.

Mr. Hiscock protested at that point that the witness was answering questions with all fairness, and objected to his being examined in that way, and after a little general talk the examination proceeded, the witness declaring that he had corrected the errors as early as he could.

Attorney General's Salary.

Wilmington Star,

Senator Graham's bill puts the salary at $500 and fees as Attorney General, and $1,000 as Supreme Court Reporter. This is more than enough, as he can practice his profession in the Courts. The tone of the State press is very decided in regard to a reduction of salaries.

Mrs. Senator Logan.

Pittsburg Dispatch.

Mrs. Logan was triumphant in the republican caucus of the Illinois legislature, and John will go to the United States Senate. This will encourage other wives in the country to follow in the footsteps of good Mrs. Logan and make their husbands senators.

The District of Columbia.

Washington Capital.

We do thank God that he moved Rutherford B. Hayes, President, to appoint one Hagner, from Maryland, the judge to fill the place left vacant by Judge Olin. We are thus thankful for, not what we received, but for what we escaped. It is believed that the appointment rested between Mr. Hagner and our Riddle. We don't know Judge Hagner; but we are told that he has a good digestion and a clear head, while he is sufficiently copper-bottomed to insure long sitting and patient hearing. But with Mr. Riddle we should have passed from paralysis to dyspepsia, from bad to worse. Mr. Riddle is a good man, who writes bad novels. He can advocate women's rights with better phrase and more learning than any man we know of. But dyspepsia on the bench makes the gods howl with anguish.

His Excellency said, in excuse for overlooking our bar and going into the wilderness after Hagner, that our courts were not local, but United States courts.

Of course they are, and so is everything else in this District. We have nothing. Our wives and children, our maid-servants and men-servants, our houses and households, our cows and horses and asses and goats and pigs are not ours, That is, they are not, if anybody wants them.

This District of Columbia is only a national door-mat for Administrations to wipe their feet on; and, Lord help us! but they are very dirty feet generally!

Our courts are United States courts; our commissioners are United States commissioners. Have we anything that is not the property of the United States?

We would well wish to see His Excellency take a man from Maryland and make him judge of a court in New England, or one from New England and locate him in Ohio.

May Satan seize us, but we wish we could change places with the Cheyennes and have the right to begin shooting officials.

However, they are all suffering from their bad whisky and their Kidwell Bottoms, and there is some comfort in that.

The Present Appearance of Babylon.

It is usual for travelers to dwell upon the utter desolation of Babylon, and to paint its site as a strip of desert, especially woe-begone and unfertile. But the eloquent gentlemen who dwell upon this aspect of the place could not have seen it in the middle of April. The date groves and gardens along the banks of the Euphrates are then things of beauty in their fresh spring verdure, and the plain itself is laden down with crops. Irrigation canals cross it here and there, and give trouble to the horseman. No grass grows upon the mounds, and there are patches of the level white with the nitre which is to be found here as in other parts of Mesopotamia; but the surface of the soil is on the whole green and pleasant to the eye.

The glad water of the river flows on in the bright morning sunshine, with palm and mulberry hanging over its banks, drinking in sap and life. The great city which counted its population by millions, and filled the world with a renown not yet forgotten, has disappeared under the dust of twenty centuries, but nature is as fresh and jocund as when Babylon was still unbuilt. Birds sing overhead in the pleasant spring air; butterflies flatter about in search of flowers; balmy odors regale the sense. It is difficulit under the circumstances to feel as one perhaps ought to feel for the great capital which once cumbered this ground. Nature does not mourn for it, and it is hard to be end at the bidding of sentiment when the bright Spring hides its grave. —Through Asiatic Turkey, by Grattan Geary.

Christiancy for Peru.

Special Dispatch to the Buffalo Courier.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The appointment of Christiancy to a foreign mission is mostly a question of time. This matter lies in his own hands and there is reason to believe his nomination, probably as minister to Peru, will be made and accepted at an early day. The Senator has had the option of several foreign missions and his choice is understood to be the Peruvian chiefly because of the climate.

The Republican Riot.

From the Albany Argus.

The Republican majority in the federal Senate is very small, but it seems resolved to make its last days its worst days. It closes the doors and then breaks out into a riot of bad language about its own administration which it put in by fraud, and all because of two petty stipendaries and their places.

A Democratic Lochinvar.

Cincinnati Commercial.

A new senator has come out of the west,
He lives in Missource, his name it is Vest;
When hung on his Washington peg they will find
That he's one of the old-fashioned, double-breasted, low-necked, shad-bellied, democratic kind.

Straight Haired Georgia.

Memphis Avalanche.

The Augusta Chronicle says Georgia would not vote for Tilden. Which the same is stuff and nonsense. Georgia will vote for the Cardiff giant, George Francis Train, or the king of the Cannibal Islands, if labeled "democratic nominee."

Sketches of Logan and Carpenter.

Cincinnati Commercial.

Matt. Carpenter and John A. Logan will be glad to see each other in the senate. One has hair and brains, and the other tongue and hair. Both bloom with the same great principles.

Colonel Fred.

Galveston News.

Fred. Grant ought to comb the cannon balls out of his hair before he goes to reinforce Ulysses.

The Eternal Fitness.

Atlanta Constitution.

John Sherman ought to be made president of Windom's proposed colored territory.

We are astonished at the endeavors of parties to introduce new remedies for coughs and kindred complaints when they should know that the people will have Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and nothing else.

Private Boarding.

Having rented the large and well arranged dwelling house on Morgan street near Blount street, known as the Cayton House, I have furnished the same and am prepared to accommodate the public with good rooms, good fare and comfortable accommodations. Prices low. Transient Board $1.00 per day. Apply early, Mrs. C. Waller.

SAVE YOUR HAIR | TO LEARN HOW TO DO IT READ AND HEED WHAT FOLLOWS

SAVE YOUR HAIR.—The laws of Health and Longevity demand it, the customs of society require it. The matter is of great importance in every way.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.—It is the unfailing crown of glory, and for the loss of it there is no compensation.

CULTIVATE YOUR HAIR.—For by no other means can it be saved and beautified.

LYON'S

KATHAIRON,

Discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

Besides being the best hair dressing ever produced, Lyon's Kathairon will positively prevent grayness, and will restore new hair to bald heads, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed.

It actually performs these seeming miracles, as will be seen by the following

A FAIR SPECIMEN.

I have been entirely bald for several years, caused by constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Lyon's Kathairon, and, to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.

COL. JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A.

In every important respect the Kathairon is unquestionably incomparable. It is recommended

1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To Restore Gray Hair.
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.

BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is no sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to paint and daub the hair and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and limpid vegetable lotion, intended to restore the hair by natural growth and reinvigoration. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady's or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon.

DAILY NEWS

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY ..... 29, 1879.

A Young Woman's Description of a Turkish Bath.

Have any of your wandering paths
Ever led you to the Turkish baths?
There's the finest of all things, never doubt it;
Just sit down, and I'll tell you about it.

First of all you are shown to a cell;
There you proceed to take off—well,
You may retain your hairpins and rings,
But you must remove all your other things.
Then, you wrap yourself in a sheet,
And fold it around you from head to feet;
And you'd better take one of your own,
If you chance to be large and pretty well known,
For you'll find, and your modesty 'twill harrow
That those provided are rather narrow.)

Then you follow a girl in solemn procession,
Like a white robed nun, going to confession;
Then she lays you out on a marble slab
And you feel like a lobster, or may be a crab.
To state that the room is extremely hot,
The bounds of truth overstepeth not.
Pretty soon you begin to melt,
And you wonder how Shadrack and Meshack felt.

Then you're put in a room that's hotter still;
And here you really begin to grill—
And the perspiration begins to flow,
And you think of poor Abed-nego.
There you lie and think of your sins,
And ally u've heard it will do for skins—
Till your very eyeballs begin to burn—

Then the pretty girl comes and says it's your turn,
And then stretched out as if you were dead
On a steamy slippery, marble bed,
With a rubber pillow under your head.
You are splashed, and soaped, and scoured, and rubbed,
In fact, most comprehensively scrubbed—
And last, somewhat to your consternation,
Are played on by hose, like a conflagration.

Then, tucked away in a clean white nest,
You can go to sleep or can lie and rest;
And everything in the whole arena
Is as clean as it is at home—or cleaner;
And when at last you dress for the street,
You feel so supple, and nice and neat,
And ever your temper has grown so sweet,
You feel no longer cold or hunger—
And you look at least to be ten years younger,
And be you fat as a seal or thin as a lath,
Forever you'll bless the Turkish bath.

ANGELINA.

Street Costumes.

Street costumes grow plainer and plainer. Short, undraped princess dresses with the front of the skirt laid in plaits and the back breadths trimmed with folds of velvet, are made up for walking dresses, with jackets that are almost tight-fitting and which are double-breasted to the waist, and cut away below it. The cuffs and collars are perfectly flat, and the effect of the whole costume is trim and elegant. The buttons are of polished wood or of velvet. An elegant basque for house dresses has the centre forms of the tack lengthened into square tabs which are trimmed with straight bands of the same material as the vest. The only apparent fastening of the basque is the two buttons which hold the outside together at the waist. The sleeves are small and are trimmed with four flat bands, the uppermost of which comes nearly to the elbow. This basque may be made of blue cashmere, with trimmings, and vest of white astrachan, and tufts of curled woolen are introduced into the fringe of the tunic. A new in door garment is of Indian silk, forming a blouse above the belt line and a tight basque below it. It fits very closely on the shoulders, and is trimmed with cascades of Breton lace on the cuffs and down the front.—Boston Transcript.

LIVER PILLS

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

DIAMONDS

IN SOLID GOLD MOUNTINGS.

ONE DOLLAR THE WONDERFUL LEFEVRE TRADE MARK PAT'D DIAMONDS ONE DOLLAR

Lefevre Ring, $1. Set of Studs, $1. [The Shah] Stud, $1. Lefevre Ear Drops, $1.

THE ONLY PERFECT FAC-SIMILE OF THE REAL DIAMOND IN THE WORLD.

Pronounced by the Academy of France that M. Lefevre has really obtained artificially the true diamond. The basis of these gems are pure crystals found in the Sierra Nevadas, from whence they are exported to the Lefevre Laboratory in Paris, France, where they are submitted to a chemical and voltaic process,

BY WHICH THEIR SURFACES ARE COVERED WITH A COATING OF PURE DIAMONDS, imparting to them all the BRILLIANCY, HARDNESS, and refractive qualities of the natural diamond, and making them as desirable for Wear, Brilliancy, and Beauty, as the veritable gems themselves. The Ring, Studs, and Ear Drops, as displayed in this announcement, are accurate engravings of SOLID GOLD MOUNTINGS, CONTAINING FIRE WONDERFUL LEFEVRE DIAMONDS, warranted by certificate U. S. Mint assay.

ON RECEIPT OF ONE DOLLAR we will send free, by REGISTERED MAIL, to any address in America, either article as above represented. Or "Book on Diamonds," with illustrations of artistic Diamond Jewelry in solid (14 k.) gold, mailed free.

I have seen many imitations of diamonds, but never any that could equal the Lefevre Brilliant.—M. ELLROY, Stamford, Conn.

I am in receipt of a pair of the Wonderful Lefevre Ear Drops, for one dollar; to say that I am pleased with them hardly fills the bill, they are simply elegant.—ANDREW MORRIS, Hornellsville, N. Y.

The Wonderful Lefevre Diamond Ring, for one dollar, came to hand this morning. It is really elegant, giving entire satisfaction, and eliciting wonder and admiration from all who see it.—W. H. REEDY, Martinsburg, W. Va.

The Lefevre Diamonds, mounted in solid gold, are truly marvelous.—R. F. AVERY & SONS, Home and Farm, Louisville, Ky.

The eminently successful experiments of M. Lefevre silences all doubt of the artificial reproduction of the true diamond.—M. DU FRENOY, the great French Scientist.

The Lefevre Diamond most effectually disturbs the slumbers of the possessors of costly gems.—Journal of Science.

☞ We guarantee the Wonderful Lefevre Diamonds for One Dollar to be mounted in Solid Gold, and will cheerfully refund the money if found unsatisfactory. Address all orders to the Claims of Disloyal Persons.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The Democratic Senators held a caucus to consider the amendment reported yesterday by Edmunds, as a substitute for the House joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution, prohibiting the payment of Claims of disloyal persons for property injured or destroyed in the late war, etc. The Senators discussed the question in its national as well as sectional aspect. No conclusion was reached. Many believe that there is no probabilities of passing the substitute through both Houses during the present session.

Saved by the Warmth of a Dog.

A white man by the name of Cooper came near freezing to death a few nights since, about three miles from Covington. It appears that the young man was riding a horse and became so cold that he could not ride, turned his horse loose and laid down in the corner of the fence to await the coming of a party of hunters. He went to sleep and all his limbs were frozen. Even the flesh from his legs was ready to drop from the bones. But his faithful dog, lying close beside him, seemed to take in the horrible situation of his master, and making his bed upon the legs of the frozen man, warmed them to life again. It was by the best of this dog that Mr. Cooper was enabled to get up and walk, elsewise he would have frozen to death.—Covington (Ga.) Enterprise.

TO MY FRIENDS AND PATRONS:—The Equitable Life Assurance Society, of New York, than which no Society or Company in America is more reliable for its contracts or offers greater inducements for patronage, has been negotiating with me for some time to take the management of its affairs in North Carolina. I have just returned from New York with a contract mutually satisfactory, and will as soon as practicable visit every county in the State to solicit business and plant Agencies where none exist, and I most earnestly and respectfully invite all persons wanting life policies, or holding policies with which they are dissatisfied, to communicate with me before applying elsewhere, as they can secure a policy through me or my agents on better terms. The Equitable was organized in 1859, has $35,000,000 assets, its income in 1877 was $8,500,000 and it has a surplus exceeding all liabilities of $7,000,000 to back its promises. By its Tontine Plans a handsome income may be secured in this life, besides the provision at death for the assured's dependants. The assured may reside and travel in any part of the United States.

The Death Rate of

Our country is getting to be fearfully alarming, the average of life being lessened every year, without any reasonable cause, death resulting generally from the most insignificant origin. At this season of the year especially, a cold is such a common thing that in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the dangers attending it and often find too late, that a Fever or Lung trouble has already set in. Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Boschee's German Syrup been taken, a cure would have resulted, and a large bill from a Doctor been avoided. For all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Boschee's German Syrup has proven itself to be the greatest discovery of its kind in medicine. Every Druggist in this country will tell you of its wonderful effect. Over 950 000 bottles sold last year without a single failure known.

A Legitimate Triumph in Medicine.

Dread and despair fall upon the community when a terrible epidemic, like the cholera or yellow fever, suddenly desolates our homes; yet, all the while a more insidious, but no less fatal foe, enters thousands of hous-holds every year and carries off the flower of the family in the early flush of manly youth and budding womanhood. People call it presumption, "decline," "a bad cold," "bronchitis," "weak lungs," but in most cases, the insidious, or phthisis or consumption of the lungs, which is the peculiar malady in climates like those of the British Islands and New England, but a general decay or arrest of the vital processes of nutrition All the doctors agree that there is no remedy for this but COD LIVER OIL but they are constantly met by the obstacle of inability on the part of the patient to swallow or retain it. This repulsion is entirely overcome by SCOTT'S EMULSION OF PURE COD LIVER OIL with the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA which is agreeable to the taste and an unequalled nutrient and tonic for the body nerve and brain.

The Value of Pure Wine in Sickness.

The chief difficulty with reliable wines has been their scarcity and exorbitant price, but this has been removed by the introduction of a Pure Native Wine, produced from the Oporto grape by Mr. Alfred Speer, of New Jersey. We understand he has submitted his Wine to the test of many of our celebrated physicians, and all concur in its purity, medical properties and superiority to the best imported Port Wine. Most of them prescribe it in cases of debility, affections of the kidneys, and chronic complaints, requiring a tonic, sudorific or diuretic treatment.—Examiner. Salesroom 34 Warren street, New York.
